CIRCULAR

POLICY ON RESEARCH PUBLICATION AT IIHMR BANGALORE

The policy on "Rewards for Research Publications at IIHMR Bangalore" has been designed to encourage and motivate for quality of research publications at the Institute. It aims to benchmark IIHMR's knowledge creation, assimilation and dissemination in the varied areas of Healthcare management, apart from setting the focus on direct integration of research into teaching-learning process. IIHMR Bangalore motivates faculty members to present their intellectual contributions both at national and international academic forum. The proposed Rewards Policy on research focuses on encouraging the faculty on exploring new frontiers of knowledge, aimed at fostering better learning experience for the students. The Rewards Policy has been proposed in consonance with the similar practices in vogue in the leading business schools in the country.

The objectives of the Reward Policy are:

1. To foster a research culture at IIHMR Bangalore
2. To ensure integration of research outputs with the curricula through teaching - learning process, wherever appropriate.
3. To effectively disseminate IIHMR Bangalore's research output for greater visibility amongst our key stakeholders.

Publishing a Book	Rs 20,000 per book
Publishing research paper/report in reputed international journal	Rs 10,000 per publication
Publishing research paper/report in reputed national journal	Rs 5,000 per publication
Case study publications	Rs 5,000 per publication
An Article /A Chapter in Book	Rs 5,000 per publication

For this a Publication committee has been constituted under the chairmanship of Director supported by Dean Academics and Dean Research.

Once published the faculty needs to submit the paper / report /case study to the director's office and the director would call for a publication committee meeting wherein the decision shall be made based the quality of publication and journal.

The committee's decision would be final. Once approved the payment shall be made in 15 working days.
